Tam O'Shander

On the athletic field, in our school, in our corridors and in our classrooms we find the greatest friend we ever had, — Tam O'Shander. He's friendship, good sportsmanship, good fellowship and kindness. He's our life at Hingham High School. He's the true American Spirit! Tam is always there when we need him.

When we entered Hingham High School we met him. He grew slowly at first; then to such an extent that we took Tam and introduced him to friends outside our walls. This little fellow with the personality made up of good sportsmanship, good fellowship, friendship and kindness has never met his equal. We shall always feel that his influence is with us throughout our lives.

GUESS WHO?

Standing: W. Welch, T. Studley, J. Mitchell, D. Alexander, R. Handrahan, N. Robinson, R. Haley, D. Ayers, M. Walsh, E. Colombi, G. Disnard, R. O'Brien, W. Handrahan. Seated: P. Ross, Vice President; K. Means, R. Crowley, President; E. O'Neil, Treasurer; M. Higgins, Secretary; Mr. Chapman, Advisor.

STUDENT COUNCIL

The Student Council, a group that represents each of the four classes and each athletic team, is an old school organization. The council issued a constitution by which all the school is governed. The council consists of the four class officers, the chairman of the Athletic Board and a representative from each home room.

HOME ROOM MANAGERS

"Ten cents, please!" comes that "noise", that voice of the home room manager when he tries to bankrupt you for another week. Ah, but you fool him; you have your ten cents. The manager takes out his big orange book and places a check beside your name. This financial wizard, who under the direction of Miss Burditt, collects our dues. Ah, but that isn't all. He also conducts the business of home room during special periods. His unsung assistant must also be mentioned as he is the one to take over in the absence of the manager.

Standing: P. Abbey, R. Carew, F. Disnard, B. Bernstein, N. Roy, N. Fitzpatrick, E. Piccini, E. Driscoll, R. Crowley, P. Ross, J. Mancino.
Seated: J. Allegra, J. Conditto, D. Smith, Commissioner; T. Studley, Captain; B. Magner, Commissioner; J. McLellan, Mr. Scott, Advisor, K. Means.

MARSHALS

From behind you comes a voice, "STOP!" — that one syllable word that sounds like the voice of destruction. You might have guessed that that was the wrong door to come out of or that skipping stairs was illegal. Hence, a Marshal appears on the scene to correct your misdemeanor. It may mean concentrating on your error during seventh period.

But really the marshals aren't grouches. They're students who do a grand job keeping traffic moving throughout the school. Mr. Scott is the advisor and certainly a good one.

Standing: E. Merlino, J. Downing, A. Wigmore, C. Williams, L. Anderson, R. Ayers, P. Carew. Seated: M. Wilkman, Miss Coon, advisor; D. Alexander, A. Kelly, B. Boss.

Freshman and Sophomore Executive Boards

EXECUTIVE BOARDS

Each board consists of the officers of the class, two representatives from each home room of that class, and the faculty advisor. This board represents the students and carries on the business of the class meetings. The board is a new form of class organization in Hingham High, as it was organized at the beginning of this year. After a year as a trial, the board seems to be effectual and successful.

Standing: M. Linscott, Baseball; R. Crowley, Basketball; K. Blakely, Hockey; W. Crowley, Track; K. Means, Tennis; Seated: A. Conway, Tennis; Mr. Fieger, Coach; Mr. Cronin, Advisor; Mr. Woodward, Coach; B. Magner, Hockey.

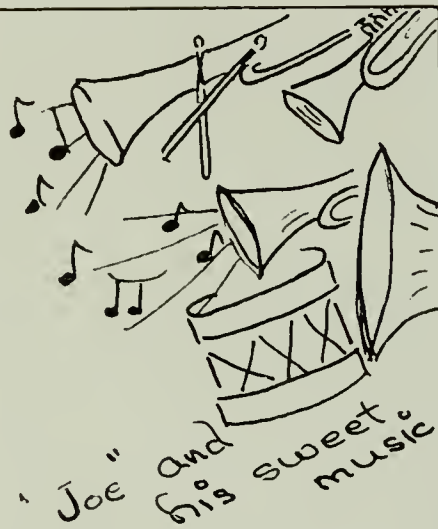

Athletic Board And Assembly Committee

Standing: R. Barron, J. Kearns, J. Gratta, P. Dunphy, N. Roy, S. Sherman. Seated: J. Brickett, Mrs. Henderson, advisor; J. Dykeman.

JOPPERS

The acceptance of Joppers as one of the recognized organizations of the school this year has filled a position that has long been vacant in the list of extra curricula activities. Under the guidance of Miss Wells the members have read and discussed many interesting books and have given reports on almost all of the well known, current literature. Although this is the first year of recognition, the club has been in existence since last year and is open to all but the Freshman Class.

Top to bottom [l. to r.]: J. Allegra, W. Mahoney, R. Balch, D. Smith, H. Adams, E. Piccini, R. Crowley, P. Ross, A. Starratt, K. Means, G. O'Brien, F. Deering, R. Handrahan, J. MacLellan, P. THE VARSITY H CLUB 1940—41

This club, a rather new one at Hingham High School, was organized in 1939 by Herbie Cole. The purpose of the club is to discuss the various sports and matters pertaining to athletics. Meetings are held monthly and new members are accepted as they earn a letter in some sport.

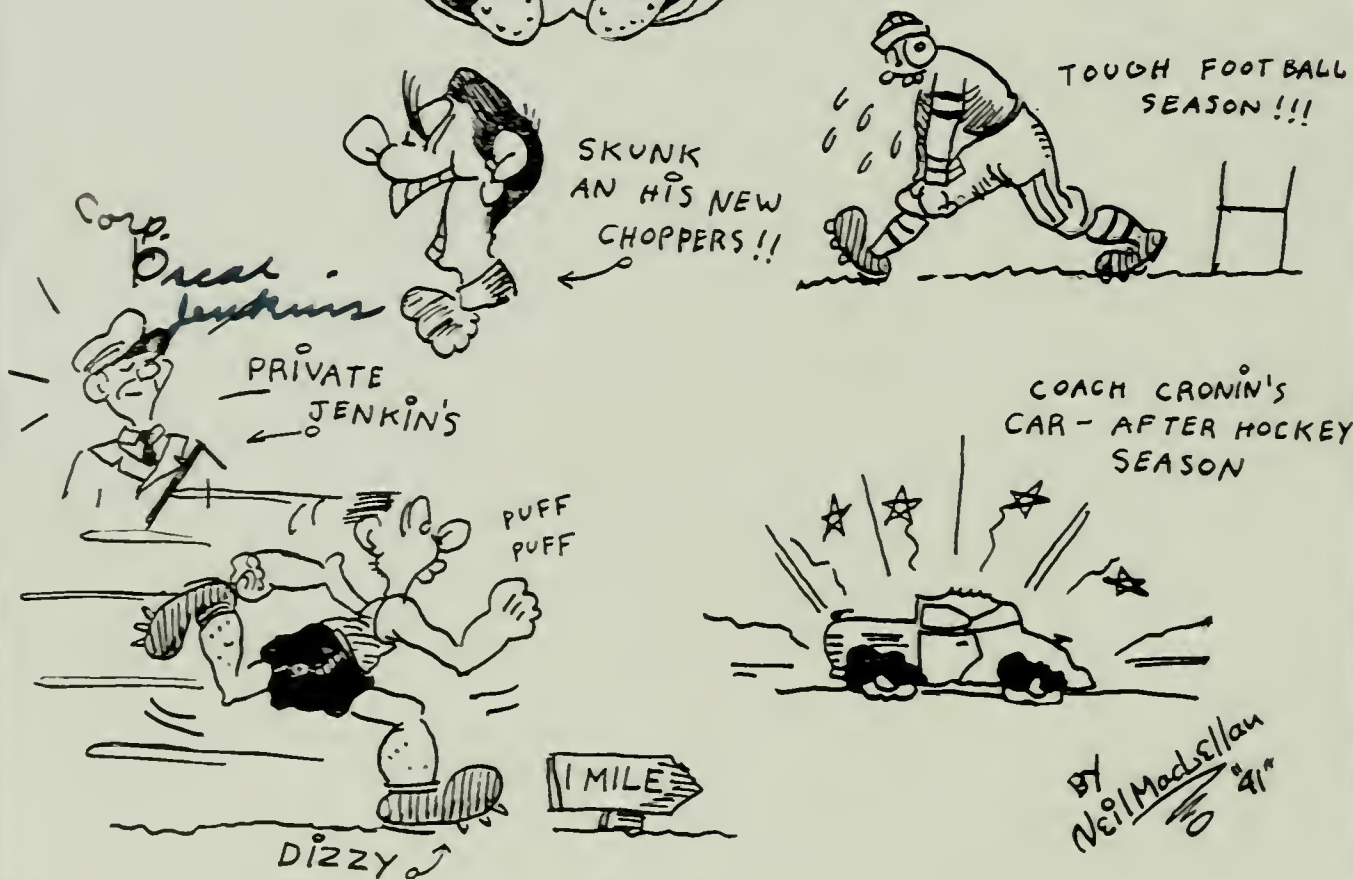

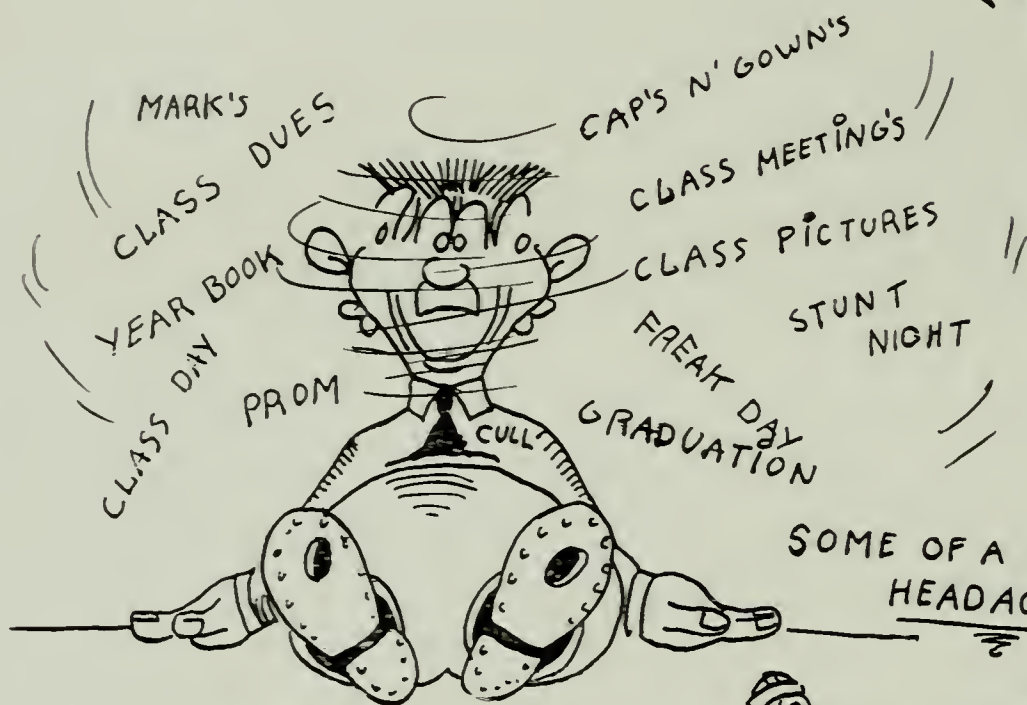

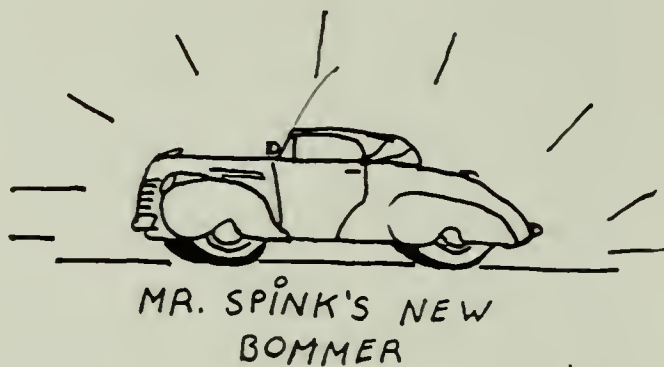

To become a member of the club one must earn a letter in a varsity sport. At the close of each year the club goes on an outing.

JUNIOR RED CROSS

The Junior Red Cross is composed of a representative from each home room and Miss Poole as the advisor. They meet to discuss ways of helping to better the town. At Thanksgiving and Christmas, they collected food and clothing from the students and distributed them in baskets among the needy families of the town. They instituted a Red Cross First Aid Course this winter and they sent Janis Thaxter and Frank Ahern to Washington this spring to gather new ideas at the National Junior Red Cross Convention.

BAND

Under the twirling batons of drum majorettes Priscilla Leathers, Phyllis Smith, Louise Lund, Patty Curly, Mae Wilkman, our band did a grand job playing for football games, assemblies, and at the festival in Plymouth. The band has added much prestige to our high school because it has performed so ably before the public. Many thanks go to Mr. Leach under whose direction the band performs.

“What A Life”

"WHAT A LIFE"

The play "What A Life", by Clifford Goldsmith, was the school presentation for the 1940—41 year. It was decidedly one of the better plays produced by the high school.

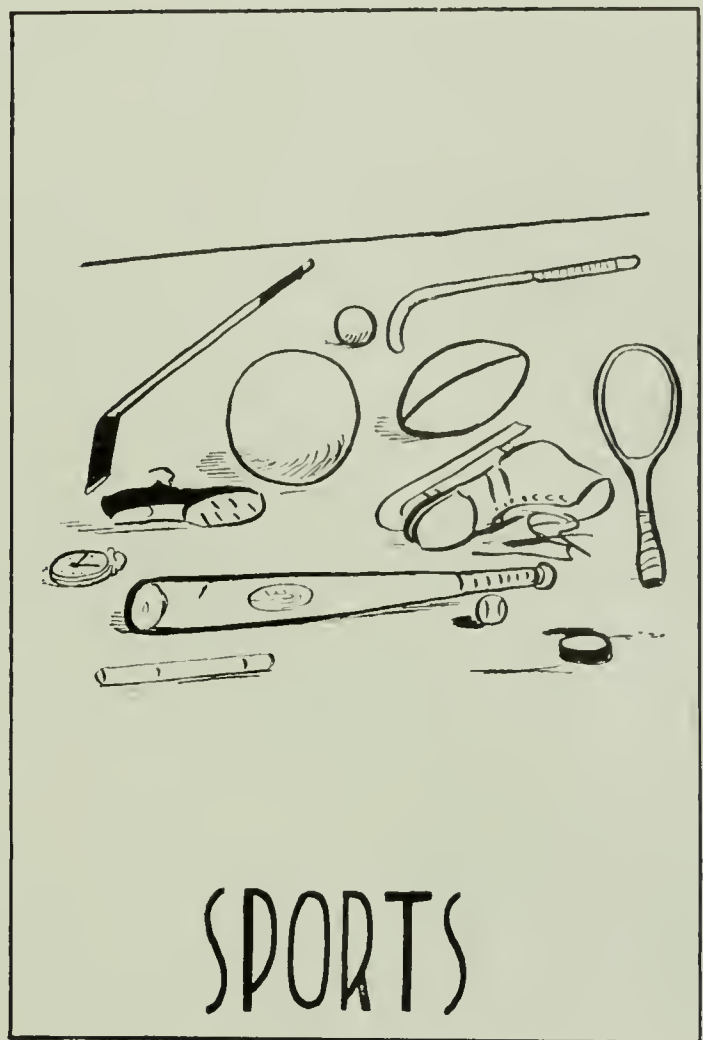

About the latter part of December, the play books were distributed to the fortunate students who earned roles by their good performances at try-outs. Lennie Bjorklund was chosen as a natural "Henry Aldrich" and Nancy Roy was a perfect "Barbara Pearson". Patty Harwood performed as the charming secretary of stern, gruff, school principal "Mr. Bradley" played by Leon Beck. As the long, lanky, lazy "Mr. Ferguson", detective extraordinary, "Hook" McSweeney was superb.

The play, in a general summary, concerned itself with a day in the life of an ordinary high school boy who, wanting to take his best girl to the Spring Prom, is told by his mother that he must get the highest mark in his history examination. When "Henry" fails to know the answers to the exam, he cribs from "George Bigelow's" [Bill Magruder] paper and when he is discovered, will anyone ever forget Henry's expression as he stammered, "When Ceasar took Rome, he certainly ruined my life!"

Returning from our Christmas vacation, we found play rehearsals came every afternoon. Under the guiding hand of our new Public Speaking Prof., Mr. Spink, we rehearsed and rehearsed. Mr. Spink was full of ideas for the interpretation and presentation of the lines and by the middle of February, the play was ready for presentation. The night was Friday, February 21, the audience was quite big, and the play was a success!

The members of the cast were invited to present a portion of the play before the Massachusetts Drama Festival at Fitchburg, but upon requesting permission from Mr. Goldsmith, were refused.

The whole cast had fun doing the play. The pictures on the previous page are shots taken at dress rehearsal.

FOOTBALL

Mr. Cronin was faced with the trouble of having to build an almost entirely new team this year as only two varsity letter men returned. We all know what a grand team they were by their good sportsmanship shown after their defeats.

With more letter men returning next year, the prospects are all the brighter.

GIRLS' HOCKEY

On the afternoon of the first game of the 1940 season, many rabid H. H. S. hockey fans trekked out to see the girls' hockey team begin their season of hockey. The team lived up to all expectations, not only in their victories, but by the spirit which they displayed in every game. Their defeats proved to us that they are one of the best teams yet.

The team was ably coached by Miss Simmons, captained by B. Magner and managed by J. Fairbanks.

The boys of the baseball team have been hitting the ball so hard at practice that it isn't any wonder their season was a success. They had quite a full schedule and behind the hurling of Paul Ross, Mike Loring, and Bob Carew, the team spoke well for itself.

BASKETBALL

The basketball team of this year, captained by Bob Crowley and managed by Jimmy Mancino, had a really successful season. The new athletic coach, Mr. Fieger, found only two letter men returning, but around them, he built a winning team. More power to Mr. Fieger and all success to next year's basketball team.

Standing [l. to r.]: R. Balch, manager; J. Dunn, D. Welch, J. Ketchum, F. Ayers, N. MacLellan, J. Duff, Mr. Cronin, coach. Seated: F. Deering, J. Antoine, J. Stoddard, K. Blakely, R. Carew, P. Abbey, M. Linscott.

ICE HOCKEY

The ice hockey team, led by captain and goalie Ken Blakely, had quite a successful season. Under the direction of Mr. Cronin, the coach, the boys played many outside teams including Brockton, Quincy and Thayer Academy. Although eight of the boys are seniors and will not return next year, the prospects for one of the best hockey teams yet, may be looked for in the boys who will take their places.

Manager
F. Huff

TRACK

The track team is another of the more successful sports of the school. Although in former years it hasn't been too popular, it is increasing in interest to the student body. There are some excellent runners and some excellent jumpers. Mr. Fieger is the coach and under his supervision the boys are building one of the best teams yet.

BOYS' TENNIS

The boys' tennis team hasn't lost a match in three years. That is a record! This excellent team, supervised by Mr. Woodward, swing their rackets in a winning way. May we wish them all success during this season.

[l. to r.]: H. Adams, N. Roy, J. Nye, A. Hunt, B. O'Neil, J. Mitchell.

Cheerleaders and Girls' Hockey 2nd Team

GIRLS' BASKETBALL

The mighty seniors came through and defeated the under-class teams. All of the teams gave them plenty of competition but the senior girls proved to be too strong for their opponents. It is little wonder that the senior girls won the championship with such fine players on their team?

Miss Simmons coached and E. Lincoln captained the team. Let's hope next year's seniors will live up to their name.

GIRLS' TENNIS

With so many bright prospects out for tennis this season, it is too bad that only a few girls could be chosen for the team. You may be sure that the girls who were chosen will add up an excellent score, as each member is a fine player. After looking over the names of the players, I think it is safe to say that the team will be the best we have had.

Miss Simmons will coach and A. Conway will captain our team.
